

LOCALS AND PERSONALS

Mrs. D. A. Gladden of Birmingham, Ala., is home for the Xmas holidays. Dr. Gladden has just closed out successfully five years of constructive work at Thirdgood--was among the first elected delegate to General Conference, May 1922, at St. Louis, Mo.

He will entertain his Annual Conference next year at Thirdgood.

Mrs. Mattie Capers of Daltzell was in the city a few days ago as a patient of Dr. Evans.

Dr. R. W. Baylor filled the pulpit at Second Calvary Baptist Church last Sunday instead of pastor Moore who filled an engagement at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Sumter.

Mrs. Fannie Williams, son and daughter of Baltimore, Md., are spending the Christmas with their mother and grand-mother in this city and will be glad to meet her many friends at 2129 Laurel Street.

Rev. Douglass of Chester was a pleasant caller at our office this week in company with Editor Logan.

Mr. J. E. Gladden of Blackstock attended the session here this week and paid our office a call.

It is said by those who heard it that Dr. D. F. Thompson, did himself credit in his sermon to the Grand Lodge Session of Masons here this week.

Mr. M. H. Harrison of Aiken attended the Masonic Grand Lodge Session this weekend joined our host of readers.

Don't forget, rather don't fail to join the Victory Bank's Christmas Savings Clubs. Each child should join.

Mr. D. S. Green of Charleston, G. S., Good Samaritans was in the city last week and visited our office. We are always glad to have Mr. Green come to see us.

Dr. Wm. Porter of Spartanburg called around to see us while in the city this week.

LAURENS NOTES.

Quite a few persons from here attended the Piedmont District Conference which convened at Greenwood last week. All report an enjoyable trip, and an interesting session.

We are glad to say Rev. J. C. Smart, pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church will be here another year. Rev. Phillips, who for the past year was pastor of Boone's Chapel will go to Greenwood. Although Rev. Phillips and family have been here only a short while, they have made many friends, who hate to see them go, but wish for them much success in their new field.

The first of a series of entertainments to be given by the faculty and students of the T. S. High School, was given at Clinton last Thursday night and was a success in every way. These entertainments will be given at different places in the county from time to time in interest of the school.

Rev. Richard Carroll of Columbia was a visitor in the city last Saturday and Sunday.

Boone's Chapel which was blown down in a tornado last year is being rapidly rebuilt. Although not quite completed, services were held there last Sunday.

Mr. Sam Satterwhite is very ill at this writing.

Mr. John Williams is also on the sick list.

MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear little daughter and sister, Hettie Belle Gregory who departed this life December the 12th, 1920.

In our many hours of sadness, When for us life seems no cheer; She enjoys the life of gladness And her eyes are free from tears.

Oh, we miss our Darling Hettie, And for us there is little rest, Oh, we loved our Darling Hettie, But God loved her best.

How we wept in hearts of sadness When her earthly toils were over, But we'll meet our little Darling, On the happy golden shore.

Father, Mother and Brother, John Gregory, Nancy Gregory, Russell Ellis.

A COLUMBIAN PASSES AWAY.

The relatives and friends of Mrs. Clementia Hawkes were saddened at her sudden death which occurred in Chicago, Dec. 5th. She was originally of this city and those who knew her found her always amiable, kind and true. She had been married about ten years and a husband and son survive her. She was the grand-daughter of Mrs. Anna Gregory of 1409 Gadsden St. Her funeral was preached at Central Metropolitan Church last Sunday. She was eulogized by Mrs. Baylor and Wiseman. Great was the crowd that viewed her remains, a silent testimony of the high esteem in which she was held.

CHESTER PARAGRAPHS

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. A. McLees, will be interested to know that Rev. McLees has accepted a call to the Wesley M. E. Church at Greer, and plans to move there in January.

in Connection With Xmas Trees:

A beautiful Cantata will be rendered at the A. M. E. Zion Church, on Monday night, Dec. 20th.

At Mt. Carmel Presbyterian Church, on Monday night, Dec. 20, a Christmas exercise will be given.

On Monday night, at Calvary Baptist Church, a Christmas program will be rendered.

The Emancipation Day Committee is making plans for an elaborate program to be rendered on Jan. 1st, at the City Opera House.

A Pageant representing "The Progress of the Negro" is a feature of the day. All ex-service men have been called to head the parade.

Rev. J. C. Tobin of Union, is to be the speaker of the day, and a great time is anticipated.

The teachers of Chester and Chester County, met at the Graded School on Saturday morning and re-elected the County Teachers' Association. Prof. S. L. Finley was elected President, Miss Connie C. Stewart, Sec., and Mrs. M. G. Myers, Treasurer. The next meeting will be held on Saturday, Jan. 7, 1922 at 11 o'clock, at the same place, at which time it is hoped that a large number of teachers will be present.

Rev. J. H. D. Bailey, County Supervisor, under the Jean's plan, is kept very busy looking after the interest of schools in the County.

A very enjoyable Bazaar, given by the ladies of "The Royal Knights of King David" was held at the Masonic hall on Friday.

Quite a number of people had the opportunity of seeing and hearing Marshal Ferdinand Foch, General of the Allied Armies in the Great World War, when he passed through the city Friday afternoon.

Mr. Morris Maxwell is on the sick list.

Rev. D. McLure is a patient at the Chester Sanatorium.

Enclosed find Money Order for Mr. C. E. Leathers, $1.25 (for back dues.)

Please send The Indicator to Rev. W. M. Honor; he is a yearly subscriber, and is not getting his paper.

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MRS. I. J. PRUITT.

A reception was given in honor of Mrs. I. J. Pruitt, Dec. 14th, at Bishop and Mrs. Chappelle's residence on Harden St., by the members of the Waverley Club. Each member made a few remarks expressing their regret at her leaving the city. She in turn expressed her regret at leaving the city and them after which refreshments were served.

SECOND CALVARY NOTES.

The Queen Contest Rally has ended with over $200.00 in the Sunday School treasury as the result of this special effort at the suggestion of Supt. Conwell.

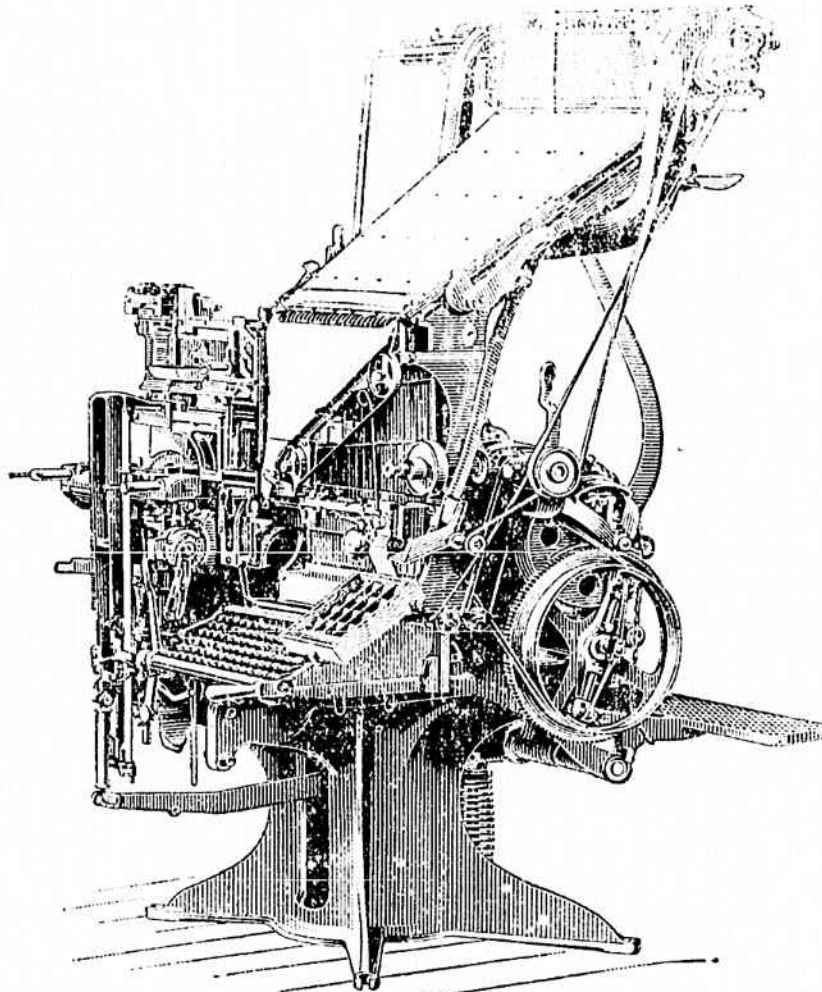

In reporting the winners in this contest in our last issue Little Mary Artemus' name, who won third prize, was unintentionally left out. The amount raised by little Mary Artemus was something over $19.

Pastor Moore will fill the pulpit all day Sunday, and as he usually does will bring to his congregation great gospel messages.

Our church is in fine shape now in every respect. Since Dr. Moore has been with us the membership has steadily increased and the financial condition is better than it has ever been. We really raise more money than ever and pay this pastor double what we ever paid any before and this, in the face of these dull times, with greater ease.

Pastor Moore and Mrs. Moore are now training the necessary number of members to present to the public in the Spring A Cantata. This promises to be the greatest presentation ever presented at Second Calvary.

Our New Linotype Machine

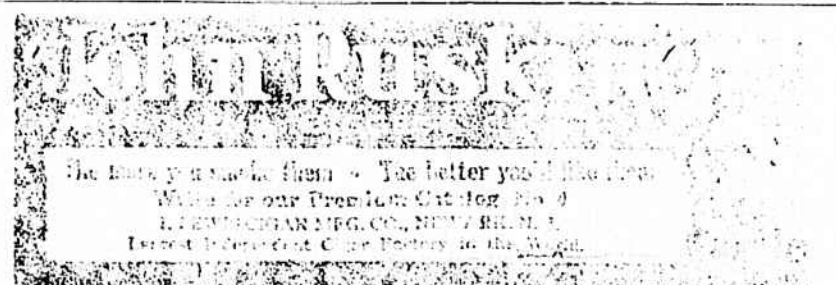

We present to our readers a picture of our New Linotype Machine with which the most of this issue of The Indicator is set and with which all of the paper and most of our Job Work will be set hereafter. . . . Whether or not you appreciate it you who have been so loyal to us in our newspaper and Job Dept. Work helped us greatly to make this forward step and we assure you that with your continued support we are going to so enlarge our business that you will be more than delighted at any time to come in and see what you have helped us to do in the commercial world to the credit of our group.

To those who are continually writing to know whether or not we can handle your minutes and other work we are glad to say that with this machine we are prepared to do it quickly and neatly and then save you money.

We thank you for your past favor and solicit your future ones. J. A. ROACH, Editor - Publisher.

FIRE DAMAGED JENKINS' BUILDING.

At a late hour Saturday night, fire did much damage to a Jew Store in the Jenkins' Building on Washington St., and a little damage to Jenkins Pharmacy. The Pharmacy is still open to serve the public.

It is not known just how the fire originated.

THE CHILDREN.

WRITE SANTA CLAUS.

Our next issue of The Indicator will be devoted to our children readers which will appear in ample time on Xmas eve for each little fellow to write a short letter to Santa Claus expressing his or her wants.

All who would like to write such letters to Santa Claus must rush them to us at once so that old Santa will get them in time to fill your orders. —Editor.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH

YOU CAN'T ENJOY LIFE with a sore, sour, bloated stomach. Food does not nourish. Instead it is a source of misery, causing pains, belching, dizziness and headaches.

The person with a bad stomach should be satisfied with nothing less than permanent, lasting relief.

The right remedy will act upon the linings of the stomach, enrich the blood, aid in casting out the catarrhal poisons and strengthen every bodily function.

The large number of people who have successfully used Dr. Hartman's famous medicine, recommended for all catarrhal conditions, offer the strongest possible endorsement for
